

2019 challenge

A piece of lace

The challenge for the summer supper this year is to use a piece of lace to make anything you would like. It can be a wall hanging incorporating the lace or a lap quilt or in fact anything you choose. There are no rules just use some lace in your make.

The challenge for presentation early 2020 is to make a landscape mini quilt or wall hanging A3 in size. The aim is to one, two or more pieces that will hang together. You can do this on your own or in a group.

You can choose a view and divide it up into sections taking a slice each or you can just use the given parameters and each choose say your favourite spot, the view from your window or a glimpse of a perfect imaginary view.

Ideally, we will be able to hang these together at the next exhibition making a frieze all around the walls. The Gail Lawther workshop entries made a great gallery last time so it would be great to achieve another great display all from our own creativity.

Rules

A3

No binding - use a knife edge or bag it out so that the hangings can merge together when hung.

Contact points are from the bottom edge up - 4 inches and 11 inches. See the images below.

You may use any fabric, technique and design of your own choosing.

You can work alone or in groups. A group is a great way to get to know other members. If you would like to join a group but don't know who to approach contact Elizabeth Ingle or any other member of the committee.
