CAMBRIDGE QUILTERS

Data Protection Policy

Our group is committed to protecting your personal information and being transparent about how we use it.

What information we collect
We collect and store basic personal details such as your name and email address. This information is provided by you when you join the group or take part in our activities.

How we use your information
We only use your information to:

- Communicate with you about meetings, events, and group activities
- Manage your membership
- Share relevant updates about the group

We do not use your information for marketing purposes outside the group.

How we store your information
Your information is stored securely, either electronically (e.g. password-protected files) or in limited paper records held by the committee member with financial responsibility.

Who we share your information with
We do not share your personal information with third parties.

How long we keep your information
We keep your information only for as long as you are a member. If you leave the group, your details will be deleted within a reasonable period.

Your rights
You have the right to:

- Request a copy of the information we hold about you
- Ask us to correct or update your details
- Request that your information is deleted
- Unsubscribe from our emails sent via Mail Chimp at any time by clicking on the link at the bottom of any email.

Contact
If you have any questions about how your data is handled, please contact the current chair via email: chair@cambridgequilters.com
2026